

The Matlab script CNN will read the images from “train test” folder . So , at the beginning of this script file, the directory has to be replaced with the directory where the “ train test” folder is kept.

Here the function “readFunctionTrain6” will help resizing the images as expected while reading from the folders. So , it has to be kept in the same directory of the scrip “CNN”.